Elected to serve as the City Clerk of Court read the oath of office and swore the men into their official positions. Mayor Scaffide said in speaking for the council they felt no formal speech was needed by the three as their records of service to the community during their past tenures of office spoke for themselves, and they only wished to further assure the people of Bay St. Louis who had shown their confidence in them by voting them back into office, that they would exert every effort toward serving the community wisely and well during the coming four years. The benediction was said by Rev. Charles Johnson, Pastor of Christ Episcopal Church. A number of friends, county officials, wives and members of the families of the three Councilmen were present at the ceremonies.

Community giving S. O. S. calls on this program. Teenage girls will be established in the business sections of the town to receive collections from citizens on the streets, and on Sunday Mrs. J. He is past president of Phi Sigma Phi Fraternity, Vice President of the St. Stanislaus Sidelines Club, and a member of the board of directors of the Bay St. Louis Youth Center. Notification was given all employees of the Local King's Daughters Hospital on Monday of this week, that as of mid-night, July 14, the hospital would close its doors for service in the community.

The following two letters have been given for press release, one from Mrs. Ed. Carrere, president of King's Daughters, from the Board of the Hospital, the other received by Hospital Director, Mrs. Myrtle Santa Cruz from J. Hoy Hathorn of the Mississippi State Hospital Commission.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC At its meeting on Wednesday June 26, 1957 the King's Daughters Hospital Board went over its financial position. The Board finds that with the help presently being given and what co-operation the Doctors see fit to give, it is far short of having sufficient income to continue to operate. Therefore on motion made and seconded and unanimously carried it was decided to close the King's Daughters Hospital at Bay St. Louis as of July 14, 1957 at mid-night. In view of the recent discussions and publicity about the present hospital we feel it is fair to the public to let them know that we have received help from the state, for indigent sick and that all such available funds were used. To that end we quote in full letter received from Mr. J. Hoy Hathorn, Secretary of the State Hospital Commission, Louisville, Miss., which letter is self explanatory. By order of the Kings Daughters Hospital Board, Claudia Carrere, President, July 2, 1957.

King's Daughters Hospital Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Gentlemen:

Attention: Mrs. Myrtle Santa Cruz

Replying to your letter of June 14, 1957, I wish to advise that, according to our records 95 patients were hospitalized under our program at your hospital for the calendar year 1956. A total of $2237.54 was paid by the Commission on these patients. At the end of the calendar year 1956 there were no unused funds left to the credit of Hancock County.

I trust this is the information you desire.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

STATE HOSPITAL COMMISSION

J. Hoy Hathorn.

STATEMENT OF COMMISSION COUNCIL CITY OF BAY ST. LOUIS

The Commission Council is in receipt of a letter postmarked July 2nd, 4:30 p.m. informing us of the decision of the King's Daughters and Sons Hospital Board to close the Hospital as of July 14th, midnight.

We were very much surprised and shocked to learn of this action taken by the Hospital Board.

While we had no prior knowledge of the Hospital Board to take such drastic action, we feel that every effort should be made by all groups and individuals who are interested or close to the operation of the Hospital to continue this facility at least on an emergency basis, in the hope that in the near future the problems now confronting the Hospital may be worked out.

The Council pledges its full cooperation and assistance in any joint effort that may be made to rectify this deplorable situation. (Signed)

Requiem On Death Of A Hospital

by CAROLINE KIEFER

Farewell, farewell to thee Araby's Daughter

Thus warbled a Peri beneath the dark sea,

No pearl ever shone under Oman's dark water

More pure in its shell than thy spirit in these

Farewell be it ours to embellish thy spirit.

BE IT OURS TO EMBELLISH THY SPIRIT—And the purity which has shone from many daughters through more than thirty years of the existence of the little King's Daughters Hospital of Bay St. Louis.

We wept on Monday morning when we learned that in two weeks the lights of the little hospital would be dimmed forever. The heart beat gone, the last breath drawn. We prayed and are praying that a miracle will happen before midnight of July 14 a miracle where by life may once again be saved. Only this life would be that of the hospital. Many heart beats have been strengthened, many last breaths made strong, many lives revived within the walls of the little frame building on Carroll Avenue.

And through the years of existence the purity of many souls of the humble little hospital.

Farewell—the two irrevocables—life and death over which only God has control. Man is born to die—but that God given life can be prolonged, it can be snatched from the brink of eternity to serve a purpose in this world, and many such lives have been so snatched within the confines of the little hospital. Brave women who worked with brave men in establishing first a one room dispensary, next a several room clinic, next a small frame building—proud work of HOSPITAL—Humanitarian—pitying—comforting—serving—all words which go into defining the word Hospital—and the men and women responsible for the functionings—unorthodox definitions we admit, but fitting ones we are confident.

Where do we turn now for help to relieve suffering, where can we rush in emergencies, where can hundreds of babies be born in this county during an interim of time before another hospital can be established? Where can the dying die in comfort—Farewell to thee—We embellish thy spirit—We remember and are not likely to forget the scores of patients, out and bed ones, who were treated during the devastating days of the hurricane of 1947. We remember dreadful accidents occurring on the highways from which tragic victims were rushed to the beds and care of the little hospital. Emergency lives ment within its walls responsible for the saving of numerous lives. One such stands vividly in the memory picture—New Year's Day, 1951, a beautiful day for football. The Sugar Bowl game in New Orleans an attraction for thousands of visitors, drivers relaxing highways crowded with motorists bent on pleasure, drivers relaxing at the wheels of high powered cars, and suddenly the screaming sirens of ambulances renting the perfect day. A dreadful smash-up on the Highway near Bay St. Louis. Eight persons frightfully injured on the Highway near Bay St. Louis. Not an rushed in dying conditions to King's Daughters Hospital. Not an available doctor in town. Our present Sheriff, Sylvan Lader, recently elected to the City Commission Council rushing to the High way in his car—flagging the Tennessee accompanied by his wife never way to the football game in the city. That doctor and his wife never saw that game. Instead they came at the distress call of Mr. Lader to the Little King's Daughters Hospital. Working with the staff and the available equipment the doctor toiled through the long afternoon hours, mending—stemming the flow of life blood—giving first aid emergency to helpless suffering humans.

These injured in too serious a condition to be transported further than the local hospital without first aid treatment. Later they were transferred to larger institutions where skilled surgeons completed the work of mending and curing broken bodies. All but one lived. Pray God we may never have this happen while our county is without a hospital. Embellish thy spirit little Hospital for being there that day.

May you rest in peace—you and those who have worked within your confines. Fine doctors, men in white, who through the years have shown great skill by combating disease minus the trappings of modern, fully equipped institutions. Great was their work because they had so little to work with on comparative basis. Valiant personnel staffs. Stout hearted, never say die members of an Organization dedicated to serve the frailties of flesh.

BE IT OURS TO EMBELLISH THY SPIRIT—farewell—rest easily if you must go—You have earned your rest—You have immortalized yourself in the community—born of need you served that need—Die proudly—Respect and love from those who knew you well will remain—No marble corridors—no shine of chrome nor indirect lighting—but a glow of goodness emanated from your naked wire suspended bulbs.

You have earned your rest—farewell.

Youngsters Register For Summer Music Camp At Miss. Southern

Hattiesburg, Miss. (May 29)—Almost 150 high school youngsters have registered to take part in the Southern Music Camp, scheduled July 27-August 12 at Mississippi Southern College.

Camp Sponsor Raymond Mannoni said applications to attend the Fifth Annual Event are "real, ly starting to pour in." He advised any interested parent to file an application soon, pointing out that deadline for doing so is July 15.

Musically talented high school age youngsters have many activities open to them during the two-week camp period, Mannoni pointed out. These include the opportunity to receive band, voice orchestra and baton twirling instruction.

Private lessons are given each music camper in the field he or she is especially interested in and music theory and appreciation classes meet two hours each week.

Music campers are required to join one of the three large music organizations—Band, Orchestra or chorus. Pianists and twirlers usually sing with the camp chorus, Mannoni said. Those twirlers who play an instrument may select either the band or orchestra. Students may participate in more than one group.

A recreation program is under the direction of Miss Jean Kubik, head of the recreation department at Southern. It provides

First Degree in 90 Years Received Degrees in Mississippi

Jackson, Miss. — Mississippi work- ed another step in its progress here Monday as 34 new medical doctors—the first to be trained entirely within the state's borders—received medical degrees from the University of Mississippi medical school.

The graduates are the first group to be turned out by the new $9 million university of Mississippi medical center, which was opened here in 1953.

Prior to establishment of the new school, the University of Mississippi offered a two-year medical course at its Oxford campus, but students had to go outside the state for a final two years.

In 1909, for a one year period the university offered a fourth year of medicine in connection with the Vicksburg Charity hospital, but the school was disbanded in 1910 after three graduates received degrees.

Chancellor J. D. Williams of the university conferred the degree of doctor of medicine upon 23 men and one woman in ceremonies at the Murrah High school auditorium here. In addition, four bachelor of science degrees in nursing were awarded graduate of the school of nursing.

Dr. Guy A. Caldwell of New Orleans, former chairman of the department of orthopedic surgery at the Tulane university school of medicine, delivered the commencement address.

A native of Alcorn county, Miss., Dr. Caldwell was a member of the accreditation survey team which inspected the university medical center and awarded it full accreditation early this year.

The oath of Hippocrates was administered to the new physicians by Dr. Howard A. Nelson of Greenwood, president of the Mississippi State Medical Association.

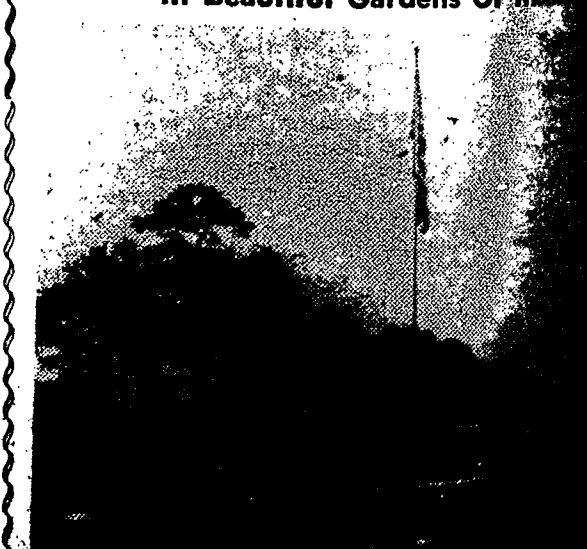

In ceremonies Sunday morning graduates attended baccalaureate services at the First Baptist church here at which Dr. W. Douglas Hudgins delivered the baccalaureate sermon.

Graduates and their family had earlier attended an alumni breakfast at the Heidelberg hotel at which university officials and alumni officers were guests.

Married In Las Vegas June 9th

In all your life you've never met a girl like Tammy, but you're going to feel awfully glad you did when you see Universal International's merry and provocative production, "Tammy" and the Bachelor, which opens Sunday at the Hi-Way Drive-In Theatre.

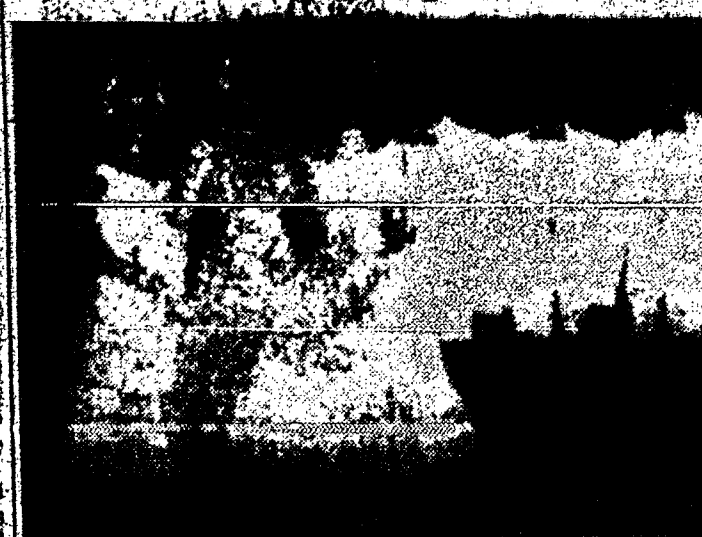

Somewhere the world seems a little brighter and a little righter after getting acquainted with this uninhibited doll from a houseboat on the Mississippi, brought to life on the screen by Debbie Reynolds in a delightfully playful, quaint performance. Teamed with Leslie Nielsen, an excellent new male star who adds brilliance to the Technicolor and Cinemascope romantic comedy, Debbie romps (mostly barefoot) triumphantly through the swiftly paced story of a child of the woods facing for the first time the perils, puzzles, and romantic hazards of the so-called "life of the city."

Helping her along the riotous route are magnificent performances by co-stars Walter Brennan, as a foxy Grandpa; Mala Powers, a too-sophisticated socialite; Sidney Blackmer, Nielsen's professional father; Fay Wray his domineering middle-aged pixie; and Louise Beavers, the understanding "Mammy."

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT
Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Demoran announce the birth of a son, Kenneth Bernard, Thursday, June 20, in King's Daughters Hospital, Bay St. Louis. The infant boy weighed 5 pounds and 8 ounces at birth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in white nylon fashioned into a chapel length gown featuring tiny ruffles in the trimming worn with a wide satin cummerbund. She wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion held by a crown of seed pearls. Her cascade bouquet was of white stephanotis and carnations with cascade wreath of white satin ribbons. Miss Chris Warner was maid of honor and wore a blue gown of lace with a wreath of flow. Her father, Charles (Spunky) Blair served as best man to the bride.

15 Billion Dollars To Be Spent On Vacations This Year

Off we go—80 million strong—America's army of vacationists landing on beaches, charging up the mountains, infiltrating the woods and sweeping over the highways.

Besides the increased business for hotel, motels, resorts, railroads, airlines, gas stations and bus lines, the annual tourist trek means new business for clothing stores, drug stores, food stores, and hardware stores.

People are rushing to buy sun tan lotion, sun glasses, creams, lotions, Murine eyedrops, sports clothes, fishing tackle, outboard motors, picnic supplies.

It is estimated that 15 billion dollars will be spent on vacations this year. Of the vacationists 85 percent will travel by automobile, 14 percent by train, 8 percent by plane and 6 percent by bus. Others go by boat and there are some who ride bikes or walk.

The middle Atlantic states will get the most vacationists, with the North Central states east of the Mississippi River getting the second largest number. Third will be the South Atlantic states and fourth the Pacific Coast states.

Among the biggest attractions for tourists are listed scenery and sightseeing. The biggest items in volume sales for tourists are aspirin, sun tan lotions, eyedrops, insect repellents and camera film.

Life would be more enjoyable if more people tried to enjoy it.

WAVELAND
WANDERINGSby
GEORGETTE B. HALL

Last week hurricane Audrey drove a score into beach residents and many visitors who were vacationing along the Coast went back to New Orleans and other areas that were considered more safe. A first hand of the approaching storm on my way back to Waveland after vacationing in Washington, D. C. and New York City. We were most anxious to get home and arrived in Waveland amid high winds and rough waters. Many of Waveland's residents made preparations for evacuation in case the hurricane came this way. Mr. Ducre Bourgeois really believes in being prepared. He brought his two new boats into his yard on Market Street just off the beach front and he and his family were ready to sail to higher ground in the water came. Ducre stated that he was ready to "navigate to the hills."

Mr. and Mrs. A. Jenkins and young J. D. Bourgeois, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ducre Bourgeois, went to Jennings, La. to see about Mr. and Mrs. Charles Langley and children who were in the path of the hurricane. Audrey. The Langleys were unhurt, but were exposed to some danger. Windows in that area were broken—electric power was out, trees were uprooted, roofs were damaged and property suffered from the high wind.

Miss Patricia Bourgeois has been in Pass Christian for the past two weeks as a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Louis Lasabe.

Consul General of Denmark and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ingemann Olsen, and Mr. and Mrs. John Felsner, of New Orleans and Slidell were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Hava on Saturday.

The Rev. W. M. Finnin has been appointed the new minister of the Waveland Methodist Church. All members welcome Rev. Finnin and will give their cooperation to him in the work that lies ahead in the church. Visitors who wish to attend services in the chapel which is located on Railroad Avenue and Favre Lane will please note that Sunday services have been changed from 9:00 a. m. to 9:30 a. m. An invitation to worship is extended to all.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bourgeois for the summer are Mrs. Laura Carro and her daughter and grandson Mrs. W. A. Patillo and son, from Annapolis, Maryland. Lt. Commander Patillo is now on duty in South American waters with midshipmen from Annapolis. He is an instructor at the naval academy.

Other guests of the Bourgeois are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carro who are visiting here from Baton Rouge.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Jackson of New Orleans were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bourgeois.

Miss Lillie Carro daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Carro, Jr. of Pass Christian, Miss, was married to Mr. Richard James Humphrey of Biloxi, on Sunday, June 23, in St. Paul's Catholic Church. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Miramar Hotel. The young couple will live in Biloxi. Miss Carro is the niece of Mrs. Ducre Bourgeois.

of Waveland. Mrs. Bourgeois and her daughter, Miss Patricia Bourgeois, attended the wedding later at the reception Mrs. Bourgeois presided at the punch table.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Salloum, Mr. Joseph Salloum, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Barnes and children, of New Orleans, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brockman, Sr.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Evans of Kenner, La., upon the birth of an infant daughter, who has been named Mary Dale. The Evans have two girls now and one son. Mrs. Evans is the daughter of the late Mrs. Harold Holdforth, who resided in Waveland for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brockman, Mrs. Norman E. Hall and daughter, Miss Lynne Hall have just returned to their Waveland home after a two week's vacation spent in Washington, D. C. and New York City. The group enjoyed all the points of interest in both cities and made interesting side trips to Mount Vernon and Annapolis. Educationally the trip was important to young Lynne, a student at Bay High School, because she saw the Senate in session. Vice-President, Richard Nixon, presided and Senator Kefauver was also present. Visits to the White House, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the nation's Capitol, the Lincoln Memorial, the Jefferson Memorial, the Washington Monument, the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington Cemetery, and the Curtis Lee Mansion were all highlights of the Washington visit.

One of the nicest places to be these days if you're in Waveland is the recently renovated Waveland Fishing over the weekend hasn't been too hot—except from the heat—following "Audrey" which stirred up the water pretty bad. Most boats took shelter up the river and bayous and very little damage was reported.

Dave Smith, an old-timer spends most of his time crabbing around the Cedar Point area. He also likes to boil them and does a good job of it.

Ruth and Charlie Thomas visited the Bay enroute to Mobile on a weekend trip. They enjoyed the Beach while here.

When Gregory Peck and Lauren Bacall made location scenes at California's tourist spot, Marine-land, for M-G-M's "Designing Woman," they fed the porpoises so much fish in one scene that the porpoises later refused to jump for regular customers!

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fogarty and family are spending their vacation in Bay St. Louis. Their house guests for the weekend were the Bing LeBlancs of New Orleans. The group got in some nice fishing while here.

Bud Evans of Meridian who has a camp up Jordan River, Bob Atwood of Fort Worth, Texas, and Bill Cabler of Meridian, spent the past week at the camp and really caught some big fresh water catfish. They enjoyed their fishing.

Arthur Christy and Dec Elliott caught some nice perch over the weekend. Arthur said he needs some brushing up on fly fishing.

Sam Mayers is still after perch and green trout. He uses worms, shrimp and what have you, and usually gets his share.

These 40 flounders, Teddy Monti, Sr., Ed Marquez and "Tut" Monti caught just before "Audrey" arrived were really something.

If you must drive—drive carefully over the week end—a slip-up could mean the end of fishing, golfing, etc. Give the other fellow a chance, too!

Glad to welcome "Lt. "Happy" Mahfouz, new basketball coach.

dormitories, double-deckers have been placed in those.

"Campus facilities have been filled for some time," President Hogarth said. "We have been placing students in town rooms selected by the college, but now we've exhausted even that resource."

One bright spot in the housing picture at MSCW is the new $822,000 dormitory housing 200 girls which is scheduled to be ready for September, 1958. Dr.
Hogarth said this will help take care of some of the overflow students.

"I regret very much," the President said, "that the physical facilities at MSCW are not sufficient enough at the present time to accommodate all qualified students who desire an MSCW education beginning in September of 1957.

However, every possible effort is being made to have the new dormitory completed by September, 1958, and a second dormitory finished by September, 1959."

To accommodate the incoming tide of students, MSCW has converted two faculty dwellings, Puckett and Stovall houses, into dormitories. Space formerly used to house the museum will instead house 30 students in the emergency.

In another effort to meet the enrollment demands, all rooms on campus were re-evaluated to see if double-decker beds could be placed in them. College officials found that all rooms were being used to maximum capacity except for some sophomore rooms in the junior and senior
